

European Union

Origin and history

The European Union was founded in 1957 as the European Economic Community. It currently has 27 members, following the departure of the United Kingdom.

The number of member countries after each accession is shown in brackets.

